Gentlemen

will you send me the 1794 1798 and 1829 the ones you sent me on approval for £20 00 and you kept the 1794. the one returned to you. I bought a fine oct 1855 for £10 5 0 now I have a chance to buy a Wass Molitor 3/5 6 in good condition. I dont know any thing about it. will you kindly advise me what shall I pay for it. Condition & Coin you can guess. Of course. the owner wants £20 0 0 — for it will thank you for information

Yours Respt

3 June, 1903.

Mr. Leslie W. Hills,

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 27th received. We succeeded to-day in selling the 1794 cent to Mr. Low for $4 and we therefore permit you to return it and we give you credit for the full amount paid us, $4.95.

We do not quite understand your letter of the 27th in regard to the cents at $20 and we therefore send you the 1794, 1795, 1798, and both 1829's on approval so that you may select whichever you desire to have.

You were fortunate to buy the 1852 $50 if it is a fine one for $105. The value of the Wass Molitor & Co. depends largely on its preservation. You rate it as "good" but do not state whether it is much nicked or not. It is therefore somewhat difficult to form a definite idea of its value. However, if it is not badly defaced it is worth $100 and if very good to fine, $125 to $150; very fine, $200. to $250. We have a very fine one in stock for $250, which, judging from the state of preservation you mention of the one you have, would be better value for you to purchase. The 1798 cent at $8 has been sold.

Respectfully

S. H. & H. Chapman

Gentlemen

Your R & Mg letter to hand. You say you dont understand My letter of 27th. I thought I had it plain. I said I would give you $20.00 for the 95 98 and 29 cts you to keep the 1794. As you had offered to make them to me at $25.00 and I said send them to me. the 1794 Cent you send to day is filled and small scratches on cheek, and in front of Mouth also dent back of Cap. break or scratch between Cent and wreath will give you 10.00 will keep the 1829 Cent $3.75 - and $11.00 for 1795 dont like the 1798 - You say the 98 - As was sold it was better than either of these if this is not satisfactory I will return. thanking you for information on coins Inclosed Round Trip and Kept
